

Dear Miedred - Well I went down & had my hair washed & set & I just wish you could see it. It looks so much better than when you were here - I had the deed fixed also - Glyde said not to put 3 names in - It might bother later on - for one couldn't act without the signature of the others - So I had Bill's name instead of James - & I will write a letter, I thought there was one already there but there wasn't, explaining that what I have left - when & if the place is sold it's to be divided in 5 shares first taking out any debts against it & Don or his heirs to have Eula's share.
Don has paid toward my support the same as the rest and I feel that he should share, when it is finally sold - I got an awful back ache in the B.P. when I got home I took 2 aspirin tablets & went to bed for a while & now it's about O.K. again. I still have the visitors & get quite a bit of mail - Today I got a letter from Marnet & she said Lurline looked for her April Cards - I'm sorry but I'll send her a belated one - It was the 29th or 26th I forget - Murriel said she can't remember & tells people she is 65; I also got a letter from Eleanor Berta Fulton - one from Marian Barker Trane Nice for you & Mariane to set out the red roses - I peer into the ground every morning for the grasses - but they haven't come up yet. a lot of Iris are budded and the snow ball is full of blossoms. Cathie & the kids are coming Sat. The Mayhewys have cleaned out their living room & made it into a bed room for them, or did I tell you that? They gave their piano to the Fire Co. She said no one played it any more & she got tired of keeping it dusted - "One Man's Family" has been mostly about Jack's family the last few episodes - Hope at something else, soon, Mrs Bachman has her cleaning all about done. She washed all her curtains - She really gets around like a woman of about 70. Jo Daniel called to know if I could have company - So shall be down soon - I'm anxious for pictures of your project but don't rush & get too tired. I think we all had such a nice time together - and I'm more "at Peace" about June, are you? Love Carrie

I forget to mention - I forgot down - I'm in a hurry & I got the post back
